Jean Monnet Atlantic Network 2.0 - Dialogues Atlantic approaches to global challenges: Sustainability, recovery and new security threats

28-29 June 2021

Online session via CIDOB's Youtube channel
Organised by: CIDOB and EU-LAC Foundation

Monday, 28 June 2021 · 16.00h – 19.30h CEST

16.00 – 16.15 Opening

Pol Morillas, Director, CIDOB (Barcelona Centre for International Affairs)
Renato Flôres, Director, International Intelligence Unit (IIU), Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV)
Adrián Bonilla, Director, EU-LAC Foundation

16.15 - 17.45 Panel 1 JMN-EU-LAC Panel: Multilateralism 2.0: How 21st century multilateralism should look like?

Assessing multilateralism on the 21st century: What were its major flaws and contributions? What are the changes in the global order that would increase the international system's resilience? What are the perceptions and perspectives as well as the contributions from the Atlantic Basin regions in shaping a renewed global multilateral system?

Adrián Bonilla, Director, EU-LAC Foundation
Rebecka Villanueva Ulfgard, Research Professor, Instituto Mora
Ana Covarrubias, Research Professor, Colegio de México

Moderator: Ernesto Jeger, Senior Programme Manager, Sustainable Development and Economic Issues, EU-LAC Foundation

18.00 - 19.30 Panel 2. Regional visions in the fight against climate change: The path to COP26

The COP26 to be held in Glasgow in November 2021 will be the moment when all the countries committed to the fight against climate change will make their proposals for the goals to be achieved to stop climate change. How will the different regions of the Atlantic position themselves? What are the goals they will commit to? With which resources and projects do they plan to achieve the objectives? What alliances can be made in the Atlantic space to generate synergies and forms of solidarity cooperation?

Dan Hamilton, Director, Global Europe Program; Austrian Marshall Plan Foundation
Distinguished Fellow, Woodrow Wilson Centre (WWC)

Jacob Werksman, Principal Advisor for International Aspects of EU Climate Policy, Directorate-General for Climate Action, European Commission

Izabella Teixeira, former Environment Minister of Brazil

Landry Signé, Senior Director and Professor, Thunderbird School of Global Management;
Senior Fellow, Policy Center for the New South

Moderator: Anna Ayuso, Senior Research Fellow, CIDOB
(Barcelona Centre for International Affairs)

Tuesday, 29 June 2021 · 16.00h – 19.15h CEST

16.00 – 17.30 Panel 3. Is the 2021 NATO Summit the turning point for the revitalization of the Transatlantic Security Agenda with a global vision?

During the four years of Trump's presidency, the transatlantic Security agenda fell into its lowest hours. Biden has set out to revitalize relationships, but what are the challenges of that new agenda? How will the new threats that transcend the traditional transatlantic geography be responded to? How does that affect cooperation in the Atlantic area? The results of the NATO Summit in June 2021 help us to analyse some of these issues.

Ian Lesser, Vice President, German Marshall Fund (GMF)

Patrcia Daehnhardt, Researcher, Instituto Português de Relações Internacionais (IPRI-NOVA)

Elena Lazarou, Acting Head, External Policies, European Parliamentary Research Service; Associate Fellow, Chatham House

Moderator: Carmen Fonseca, Instituto Português de Relações Internacionais (IPRI-NOVA)

17.45 – 19.15 Panel 4. Transborder Economic Flows from an Atlantic Perspective: Post Covid-19 Economic Recovery: is there a sustainable alternative?

After the economic contraction caused by COVID19, the challenge is economic recovery in terms of sustainability. Does the economic and development crisis, caused by the Pandemic, provides an opportunity for advancing in the ongoing transition for a sustainable future? What are the most feasible opportunities and most complex obstacles? How your region is dealing with the theme? Highlight the support and resistance positions towards a sustainable economic recovery?
